EARLY AMERICAN SPECIALISTS IN UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE

Specialization, in all fields of endeavor is sweeping the length and bredth of America. It results in finer quality of craftsmanship, lower prices and better service.

We at Crestline embarked on this road of specialization with remarkable results.

Some years ago we directed all our plans to the exclusive manufacture of fine quality Early American upholstered furniture at respectable prices.

We vastly enlarged the size of our plants, added new expensive equipment, assembled the largest selection of Early American fabrics in the country, at great investment, to aid the consumer, and are continually adding new selling aids.

We are indeed proud to have become recognized as the FINEST LINE of sensibly priced Early American Upholstered Furniture in AMERICA today.

THE FABRIC STORY

We have assembled one of the largest collections of Early American fabrics in America to enable you to use an unlimited number of decorating themes. The fabrics have been selected with great care and thought. Many man-made fibers are available such as Nylon, Herculon and Vectra which offer long lasting durability never before avaliable and the homespun warmth of Early American. Many are also Scotchgard or Zepel treated to resist soils and stains. Whether you desire bold plaids, subdued checks, documentary prints or basic textures, all are lined and center matched where required by the pattern.

DETAILS OF CONSTRUCTION

By lifting a piece of Crestline Furniture you will gain an idea of the heavy sturdy construction throughout.

Kiln-dried frames of sturdy selected hardwoods assure long life and vigorous strength.

All main joints double-doweled, reinforced, with corner blocks screwed and glued with water-proof glue for added strength to all points of stress.

Resilient No-Sag spring bases for deep luxurious comfort and trouble-free seating.

Shredded foam or Solid Foam in all semi-attached backs.

Poly Dacron Crowned Seat Cushions or Urethane Foam Cushions, encased in zippered covers. Most platforms are self-covered.

Choice of box pleat skirt, kick pleat or shirred skirts at no extra charge.

This all adds up to comfort unsurpassed through research and "Know-how".
